

HIGHLANDS MUSEUM ACCEPTING ARTICLES FOR ANNUAL ATTIC SALE

ASHLAND – The Highlands Museum & Discovery Center is now accepting gently used items to be sold in their annual Attic Sale fundraiser. We will be accepting all types of items with the exception of clothing and computers. Items can be dropped off at the museum during regular business hours or you can call the museum at (606) 339-8888 to arrange for pickup.

The annual Highlands Museum Attic Sale will take place on Saturday, September 19 from 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM and Sunday, September 20 from 1:00 – 5:00 PM. There will also be a preview sale on Friday, September 18 from 5:00 – 8:00 PM. The time is concurrent with downtown Ashland's Poage Landing Days Festival. Admission to the preview sale is $10 and admission to the regular sale is $1 and includes admission to the museum.

In partnership with schools and community, the museum attracts and educates young people from around the Tri-State, as well as preserves history and provides a dynamic resource and an integral contribution to the region's quality of life. The museum attracts more than 25,000 visitors each year, and more than 11,000 children attend special activities – workshops, camps, exhibits, events.

Housed in the historic Parsons Department Store, the museum is located at 1620 Winchester Avenue. Museum tours are available from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. Admission is $5.50 for adults, and $4.50 for seniors, students and children. Members and children under 2 are free.
