

Holiday at the Highlands 2017

General Guidelines

1. An individual or a group may prepare each entry.
2. Family and Consumer Science classes may submit several entries, each entry done by a different individual or group of students.
3. All entries must be turned in at the Highlands Museum and Discovery Center on November 29, or 30.
4. A 3 x5 or 4 x6 card must accompany all entries with all registration material completed so that houses can be identified for display.
5. If desired entries may be picked up by entrants on January 2, 2018.

Gingerbread House Guidelines

1. All high school entries should be on a 13" x 13" sturdy platform.
2. Houses may be the size of the platform or smaller with more landscape details
3. Professional decorators, community entrants may choose to use a larger platform.
4. All visible decorations and landscape materials must be edible.
5. Houses must be made of gingerbread to be eligible for prizes
6. Each entry should be given a name by the entrant.
7. Entries should follow all general guidelines.

Open House Invitation

All decorators are invited to the Holiday Open House at the Highlands Museum and Discovery Center on Saturday, December 2, 2017 from 12:00 until 2:00 pm. Winners will be announced. Please join us as we begin the celebration of the 2017 Holiday at the Highlands.

Judging Criteria

1. Neatness in execution of materials
2. Variety of edible materials
3. Creativity
